PL

Wigirski Park Narodowy http://www.wigry.org.pl/index\_en.html

Lake Wigry, one of the largest lakes in north-eastern Poland, is an important element of this park which also contains 25 smaller lakes interconnected by a network of rivers.
The largest is the River Czarna Hańcza. -East of Suwałki-

Bialowieza National Park, listed by the UNESCO as a World Heritage, is one of the last remaining <https://bpn.com.pl/>

primeval forests in Europe. The area is home to the largest population of European bison in the world. Hikers may spot them along with wild boar, elk, red deer, wolves and a range of other forest mammals.

Poleski National Park (East of Lublin) <http://www.poleskipn.pl/>

In places it is reminiscent of the tundra or the transitional zone between tundra and taiga.

Roztoczanski Park Narodowy <http://roztoczanskipl.pl/>

This park covers the central part of the Roztocze Mountain Range. Deep ravines divide the mountain slopes. The Wieprz and Tanew rivers wind their way gently across the park.
